

Excellent Therapist

I came to see Bryon during a personal crisis. As a man it has always been hard for me to ask for help and talk about personal issues and problems. Byron has been tremendously helpful to me. He is no nonsense and compassionate. His sense of humor also helps. I would recommend him to anyone. I never thought I'd be in therapy or that therapists could be so helpful.

Worth it!

Bryon is a "let's get to the point" therapist and in the few visits, he has already helped me to understand the possibilities for my life. I highly recommend him as a therapist!

Emotional Intelligence At It's Best

Bryon is masterful in his application of emotional intelligence to guide us through our relationship. Exploring areas we need to work on is never easy, but Bryon allows you to feel comfortable expressing our deepest "faults". Highly recommending Bryon for not only relationship counseling, but any type of therapy. You won't be disappointed!

Thoughtful & Creative Therapist

My wife and I have been to couples counseling before and had truly lost confidence in its helpfulness. Bryon, however, has restored my wife and my confidence that we both have blind spots that we need to be open to better understanding. Bryon isn't just an excellent listener, he provides a lot of insight and ideas for us to extend our closeness at home. Bryon's ability to use humor at the right moments makes uncomfortable conversations not only tolerable but truly enjoyable and productive.
